

FONDATION
IPSEN

Longevity Prize

LAUREATES
1996-2017

1996
Biology of aging
Caleb E. FINCH
University of Southern California
Los Angeles, USA

1997
Demographics and longevity
Väino KANNISTO
Odense University
Odense, Denmark

1998
Caloric restriction and longevity
Roy L. Walford
Formerly University of California Los Angeles
Los Angeles, USA

1999
Successful aging
John E. MORLEY
St. Louis University
St. Louis, USA

2000
Psycho-sociological factors of successful aging
Paul B. and Margret M. BALTES
Formerly Free University of Berlin
Berlin, Germany

2001
Processes of delayed aging in animals
Justin D. CONGDON
University of Georgia
Aiken, USA

2002
Biology and genetics of longevity
George M. MARTIN
University of Washington
Seattle, USA

2003
The future of life expectancy in light of the history of life expectancy
James W. VAUPEL
Max-Planck Institute for Demographic Research
Rostock, Germany

2004
Diet, death and demography in drosophila
Linda Partridge
University College London
London, UK

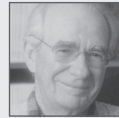

2005
Social gradient effect and longevity
Sir Michael MARMOT
University College London
London, UK

2006
The biological process of aging
Cynthia KENYON
University of California
San Francisco, USA

2007
Early determinants of longevity
David J.P. BARKER
University of Southampton
Southampton, UK

2008
Genetic factors involved in cognitive aging
Gerald McCLEARN
Pennsylvania State University,
University Park, USA

2009
Cross-national comparison of longevity through health transition
Jacques VALLIN
Institut National d'Etudes Démographiques
Paris, France

2010
Longevity, senescence and cancer
Judith CAMPISI
Buck Institute for Age Research
Novato, USA

2011
Theoretical approach to the biology of longevity
Tom KIRKWOOD
Newcastle University
Newcastle upon Tyne, UK

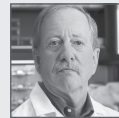

2012
Defining the frailty syndrome
Linda FRIED
Columbia University
New York, USA

2013
Molecular genetics of longevity
Gary RUVKUN
Harvard Medical School - CCIB
Boston, USA

2014
Longitudinal studies on aging
Luigi FERRUCCI
National Institute on Aging, NIH
Baltimore, USA

2015
Comparative longevity in the animal kingdom
Steven N. AUSTAD
University of Alabama at Birmingham
Birmingham, USA

2016
Genes and environment in human aging and longevity
Kaare CHRISTENSEN
University of Southern Denmark
Odense, Denmark

2017
Growth and aging; the hidden costs of stature
Andrzej BARTKE
Southern Illinois University School of Medicine
Springfield, USA